

301 Course Syllabus

Course Description:

301 is the initial course for HSK Level 3, serving as a transitional stage from elementary to intermediate levels.

Learners should:

- Have completed HSK 2 course (class 202 in this program)
- Master approximately 300 Chinese words
- Be able to use Chinese to greet others, talk about personal situations, hobbies, simple living experiences, and ask others questions, etc.

In Class 301, learners can:

- Master 300 new words
- Get accustomed to expressing themselves with long sentences
- Use more complex sentence structures to fulfill communicative functions such as expressing personal opinions, describing time sequences, stating behaviors and actions, and making comparisons
- Accomplish tasks like reading and writing Chinese characters, and know more about Chinese culture through characters, in order to overcome the fear of them

Meanwhile, we will introduce new social and economic concepts to help learners understanding contemporary China better. Extra vocabulary will be supplied according to the living and social demands of learners.
