

201 – Course Syllabus

Course Description:

This beginner Mandarin course is designed for students who have completed HSK Level 1, offering essential language skills for daily communication. By completing first eight lessons of the Standard Course HSK 2, you'll master practical vocabulary and grammar structures for real-life situations.

The course covers a wide range of useful topics including travel planning, daily routines, object descriptions, and workplace conversations. You'll learn to discuss shopping decisions, express concern about meals, describe locations and distances, as well as practice polite conversational strategies.

Through interactive dialogues, practical exercises, and contextual learning, you'll develop confidence in everyday Chinese communication while building a strong foundation for the HSK 2 exam. The course emphasizes practical application, ensuring you can use what you learn immediately in real-world situations.
